CANAL PROBLEM IS UP TO DIPLOMATS

Senate Passage of Bill Ignoring British Protest Many Mean Serious Trouble

IS SURE TO PASS HOUSE

Believed Measure Will Go to Taft for Signature in Practically Present Shape

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—With leaders certain that the house would accept all senate amendments to the measure, and that it would receive President Taft's approval, the Panama canal bill today became a diplomatic question.

In its present form—and it was believed that it would become law in that shape—the bill utterly ignores the emphatic protests lodged by Great Britain. Through Counselor Innes, charge of the British embassy, the London foreign office asked that the legislation affecting free trade for American owned vessels through the canal, and the prohibition against railroad owned ships, be postponed, at the same time expressing strong disapproval of those provisions. That they violated the Hay-Pauncefote treaty by which America gained canal rights across the zone was the contention Great Britain indicated she would make.

Legislative Problem
The state department refused to consider the question as a diplomatic one and merely transmitted all the correspondence in the case to congress, holding the matter a legislative one. The senate's action last night in passing the bill with the free trade and the prohibition against railroad owned ships and many other stringent provisions, with every indication that the measure would be finally enacted into law in this shape, forecasted early resumption of a diplomatic interchange between England and the state department. That Great Britain will carry it to the Hague tribunal was considered certain today.

Provisions of Bill

As adopted by congress, the Panama bill provides:
Exemption from tolls to American coastwise ships and all American vessels engaged in foreign trade.

Prohibition against use of the canal by railroad owned vessels.

Forbids passage through canal to vessels owned or controlled by persons or firms in business in restraint of trade.

Admits foreign built ships to registry in this country when owned by Americans and used in foreign trade.

Establishes a one man type of government for the zone.

Amplifies on the powers of the interstate commerce commission to compel railroads to dispose of steamship lines that may possibly be operated as competitors.

Acceptance of the Panama canal bill, practically as passed by the senate, was decided upon today by the house interstate commerce committee.

A conference will be asked merely to clarify certain passages by changing a few words. The senate amendments were declared acceptable by the house leaders.

ULTIMATUM TO SULTAN

SALONICA, Aug. 10.—A Young Turkish emissary left for Constantinople today to deliver to the government an ultimatum, the details of which have not been made public, but amounting in general tenor to a demand that the sultan dismiss his advisers of the military league, replacing them with a group acceptable to the committee of union and progress. Meeting with a refusal the Young Turks will resort to force and probably get up a new government.

HUNDREDS WELCOME CRAIG

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 10.—Welcomed by hundreds of cheering friends and enthusiasts at the station, Ralph C. Craig, winner of the 100 and 200 meter races at Stockholm, arrived home from the Olympic games today. His mother, Mrs. William Craig, was the first to greet him. A public reception was held in Craig's honor at the Hotel Pontchartrain at noon and hundreds of Detroiters met the Olympic hero.

ARREST SOLDIERS' ASSAILANT

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 10.—Frank Lamkan and his son George Lamkan, identified as the farmers who shot three militiamen near Camp Lincoln with a shotgun yesterday, were arrested today, charged with assault to kill. George Lamkan said he shot the men "just because he didn't want them hanging around."

Chicago Chief Leads Raid On Prize Fight

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—One hundred men today appeared in municipal court today to answer charges of having acted as spectators at a prize fight in Woodlawn, a suburb, last night. The men were captured in an exciting raid which was directed under the charge of Chief McWeeney. Several shots were fired by the police to prevent the fight crowd from running away, and Edward Schultz, of 8910 Cottage avenue, was hit in the cheek and right hand by bullets. With Schultz the police captured his six-year-old twin sons.

When the police broke into the hall William Caldwell and "Kid" French, colored, were mixing it in the second round of what was advertised to be a finish match. Enthusiasm was high and the guards at the doors were careless.

MOONSHINE STILL IN BADGER STATE

Upper Wisconsin Woods Full of Illicit Whiskey Makers from the South

HUNT SIDNA ALLEN THERE

Colonists in Northern Part of State Known to Be Relatives of Noted Desperado

LAONA, Wis., Aug. 10.—A small blue wisp of smoke curled from a densely wooded hill side on Beaver Lake early today. A revenue officer saw it and kicked his companion from cover. The two crept silently on their stomachs through heavy underbrush but drawing nearer, the smoke disappeared as if by magic and not a sound or sign of a human was to be seen or heard.

They were federal agents on the trail of moonshiners. Illicit whiskey stills have been working overtime in Forest county for weeks and a dozen revenue agents sent out by federal authorities with orders to arrest the law-breakers have failed to do so.

The moonshiners are of the stock from the Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia mountains. Driven from the southern hills by the ever vigilant revenue agents, the mountaineers have colonized in Forest and Langlade counties in the sparsely settled district of northeastern Wisconsin. With them came the raw corn juice.

The government officers recently searched the district for Sidna Allen and members of his clan who escaped after the Hillsville court-house slaughter. The colonists were known to be friends and relatives of old Sidna and his clan.

Moonshine whiskey was found in abundance but not a still has yet been located, although the officers know the hills are full of them.

LINES LAX IN MORALS

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Two lake excursion steamer lines are denounced for laxity of the morals on the part of passengers, in a sensational report to the board of education by a sub-committee, made public today by Dean Walter Sumner. A Slocum disaster on Lake Michigan is predicted unless conditions are changed with reference to overcrowding and number of life boats.

CITY TO OWN MINES

SECRETARY OF INTERIOR FISHER TO ALLOT COAL LANDS TO GRAND JUNCTION, COLO.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 10.—That the determination of Secretary of the Interior Fisher to allot to the city of Grand Junction, Colo., government coal lands, will reduce the price of fuel and better the working conditions in the mines, was the declaration today by friends of the plan.

Fisher proposes a grant of 640 acres to Grand Junction. The land is in the Book Cliff mountains and is part of the great coal field extending from Newcastle, Colo., to Price, Utah. There were six mines in this field, operated by the Colorado Fuel & Iron company. The present price of coal in Grand Junction is $3 to $4.50 per ton, and the Grand Junction men behind the municipal ownership of mines scheme declare under the new plan coal can be sold at a profit in Grand Junction for from $1 to $2 per ton.

QUAKE IN TURKEY IS FATAL TO 300

Constantinople Escapes but Many Villages Are Ruined and Citizens Dead

MANY ARE CRUSHED IN BED

Hour of Shock Was Early and Most Were Crushed when Homes Fell on Them

LONDON, Aug. 10.—More than 300 were killed in the earthquake in Turkey according to a message received here tonight. It is not stated, however, whether this is the total number of victims or only those in some one town. So far as known there was no fatalities in Constantinople itself.

Felt in Capital
The earthquake shocks which did so much damage in Constantinople's vicinity was felt severely in the Turkish capital as well, but although considerable damage was done, there was no loss of life here. Communication in Turkey is so slow that news from the more serious stricken districts could not begin to come in until more than 24 hours after the quake occurred, when the vanguard of the refugees, many of them badly injured, and all half dead with terror and exhaustion, nearly starved and almost naked, started pouring into the native quarter of Stamboul. These sufferers tell the most frightful stories of the experiences passed through. The shocks were of tremendous violence and as the hour was early and most people in bed, great numbers were caught under the ruins of their homes and crushed.

Estimates Vary

Estimates of the number of dead vary so widely as to practically valueless but unless the arrivals here exaggerate, in their horror, the disaster must have been of the most serious proportions. Troops have been rushed to the ruined towns as well as to Tchorlu, which was nearly destroyed by a fire which the earthquake started.

The towns of Gallipoli and Tchorlu are both in Adrianople province. Gallipoli is at the northeast entrance to the Dardanelles, is important commercially and has about 3,000 inhabitants. Tchorlu is on the Adrianople line, with a population of 10,000. Tchanak Kaleesi is on the Asiatic side and at the narrowest point of the Dardanelles. It, too, has about 10,000 inhabitants.

NOTIFY CHAFIN OF NOMINATION

Prohibition Candidate for President Told of Choice at Waukesha Today

WAUKESHA, Wis., Aug. 10.—Hundreds of persons who crowded into the Methodist church today, witnessed the informal ceremony which served to notify Eugene W. Chafin of Tucson, Arizona, that he had been named the candidate for president by the prohibition national convention held recently at Atlantic City, N. J.

Rev. Dr. Charles S. Mead of New York, chairman of the convention, delivered the notification address.

The presidential candidate replied in a brief address in which he charged the old parties with side-stepping the supreme issue in the high cost of living problem—the production of liquor.

When Dr. Mead had finished, Robert Patton of Springfield, Ill., a member of the notification committee, in a short address attacked the claims of the old parties and of the progressives, declaring the prohibition party had been the champion of every great measure for progress in the last forty years. Patton said: "Woodrow Wilson has not one word to remedy the conditions that are undermining our standard of public morals, how can we trust him to lead this nation in the paths of progress?"

"President Taft has chosen to honor the destroyers of manhood more than any other chief executive by aiding and abetting their business. We know that another administration at his hands means a continuation of the present down grade of our citizenship."

"The socialist party in its propaganda has no place for the consideration of the great problem of uplifting our manhood, their statesmanship from that point alone is too narrow to meet the wants of this nation."

"Roosevelt's conversion to the cause of progressive government is entirely too recent and lacking in too many essentials for us to trust him."

Baby Death Rate High In Wisconsin

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 10.—Statistics compiled by the state board of health show that the death rate among infants in the state of Wisconsin is 105 out of every 1,000. The alarmingly high infant mortality rate has roused the board of health to the publication of a bulletin which will be distributed throughout the state setting forth the proper method of feeding and bathing infants. The death rate of adults in Wisconsin is 12 out of every 1,000. Over 2,000 children in Wisconsin are permanently blind as a result of infection following birth. An appropriation of $50,000 will be asked by the state board of health from the next legislature for the purpose of buying and keeping the physicians of the state supplied with silver nitrate solution, the application of which immediately after birth, will absolutely prevent blindness.

BECKER ACCOUNTS ARE INVESTIGATED

Whitman Turns Men Loose to Discover Where Official Planted His Gains

TWO GUNMEN THE SLAYERS

Evidence Shows "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood" Killed Rosenthal

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The personal accounts of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, held for the murder of Gambler Herman Rosenthal, were being investigated by District Attorney Whitman today. The prosecutor was also looking into reports that have come to him to the effect that "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie," the two gunmen still missing, have been hidden by a man connected with a high police official. It now seems certain that these two actually fired the shots that killed the gambler according to the evidence in Whitman's possession. With the pair under arrest, Whitman believes he could get several confessions he needs to complete his case against Becker.

CLERK'S STORY CAUSED ARREST

Believed City Employee of Detroit Confessed and Implicated Aldermen Taken Yesterday

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 10.—That the confession of one of the arrested city officials, E. R. Schreiter, council clerk, caused the arrest of seven aldermen yesterday charged with conspiracy to accept bribes from the Wabash railroad, is not denied by the prosecutor's office today. Eight of the seventeen were among the ten officials, including Schreiter, who were arrested two weeks ago charged with "accepting bribes."

It is believed that it is only through such a confession that the arrests could have been made. Schreiter has been connected with the city hall for upwards of fifteen years, and it is said that his confession involves the aldermen arrested in more than one deal. Prosecutor Shepherd today refused to admit that Schreiter had confessed, but the fact that no warrant was issued for him on the second charge leads many to believe that if the council clerk is convicted the prosecutor will appeal to the court in his behalf.

TWO MURDERERS HANGED

KAMLOOPS, B. C., Aug. 10.—Walter Palke, alias Walter James of North Dakota, who murdered Constable Astern recently, and a Japanese named Takahashi, who murdered one of his fellow countrymen, were hanged in the jail here today. TO FIGHT FOR CATLIN'S SEAT

Minority Report Defends Election of Representative from St. Louis

NO CORRUPTION IS ALLEGED

Hold Presence of Congressman's Sister at Conference Proves His Worthiness

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Forecasting a warm partisan battle over the right of young Theron Catlin, son of a St. Louis millionaire and republican representative from the eleventh Missouri district, to his seat, the minority report of the elections committee sustaining Catlin was filed in the house today. The majority report recommending Catlin's ousting and the seating of Patrick Gill, his democratic opponent, has already been filed and a record vote on the issue will be taken next week.

Gill charged that Catlin was elected by fraud, and that corruption was practiced in the expenditure by Catlin's father of $10,000 in violation of the anti-corrupt practices law of Missouri. The majority report held that on account of alleged bribery and fraud a total of 10,000 votes, representing several wards, should not be counted, turning a majority for Catlin of 1,300 into a majority of 431 for Gill.

The minority claim is that only 31 votes were illegally cast for Catlin and that there is nothing in the record to sustain the fraud charges.

Referring to a conference between Catlin's father, sister and brother and Daniel Kirby, at which plans made for the elder Catlin to contribute $10,000 to the Catlin fund without Catlin's knowledge, the minority report says "the presence of Miss Catlin demonstrates the absence of corrupt motive. The conference in itself had none of the elements of the bathroom performances which characterized the Lorimer case."

The minority pointed out that there is no law in Missouri which prevents the expenditure of $10,000 in behalf of a candidate for congress, provided he does not spend the money himself and has no knowledge of the expenditure.

Catlin's opponent, Gill, was recently defeated for the democratic nomination next November.

The case on trial was that of an expressman who wanted $29 for moving some household goods.

WILL FIGHT TO BE PRESIDENT

General Dissatisfied with Haytien Congress' Choice Leads Revolution on Capital

THE PEOPLE FEAR FIGHTING

Haytiens Sure War Either of Revolt or with Santo Domingo Will Start Soon

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, Aug. 10.—News that Gen. Tribonien Saint Just has either started or is just about to start for Port au Prince to claim the presidency of Hayti, bringing with him a big party of followers who have been in exile in Jamaica since the late Gen. Leconte became president, caused a panic here today.

Of course Saint Just cannot become president without displacing Gen. Auguste, the Haytien congress' choice as Leconte's successor, and Auguste will not give up without fighting. He counts on the army to support him, but it is said many of them favor Saint Just.

It is said that the Dominican government is preparing a demand for explanation of Hayti's alleged activity in stirring up revolution in Santo Domingo. Between Saint Just and Santo Domingo, the people think there is pretty sure to be fighting shortly and are seriously frightened.

That an agent of the Haytien death in Jamaica caused Leconte's exile by blowing up the powder magazine adjoining his palace has not been verified, but it is generally believed here. Funeral services for the dead president were held today.

The American warship which arrived yesterday to protect foreigners in case of disturbances ashore is now at anchor off the city.

FOUND DEAD ON CAR

MAN WITH THROAT SLIT IS TAKEN FROM ROOF OF MAIL CAR AT ORTONVILLE

ORTONVILLE, Minn., Aug. 10.—The dead body of a man with his throat cut from ear to ear was pulled from the roof of the mail car of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road as the train sped through here today. Blood dripping from the roof of the car to the platform led to the discovery of the car's ghastly burden. It is believed the man was murdered after the train left Appleton, the first station east of here. He was dressed like a laborer. Another laborer was found in an unconscious condition near the tracks of the railroad at Appleton with a serious wound in the head and it is believed by the authorities here that the two men had been in a death to death fight. Nothing was found on the clothing of either by which identification could be made.

McGOVERN PUT IN HOLE BY T. R.

Must Declare Himself for Colonel or See Third Party State Ticket, Is Ultimatum

COL. HICKS TO OPPOSE HIM

Oshkosh Newspaper Publisher Is Choice of Roosevelt for Bull Moose Candidate

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—That the promised third state ticket in Wisconsin, in the event Governor Francis E. McGovern and other republican leaders do not declare themselves as to just where they stand on the Roosevelt situation, is not an idle bluff but that the bull moosers are very much in earnest, was realized when it became known today that at the meeting in Chicago attended by Colonel Roosevelt himself, the man to head the revolt ticket in this state was selected. This man is Colonel John Hicks, Oshkosh, newspaper publisher and enthusiastic Roosevelt supporter.

Hicks was selected at the personal request of Roosevelt and has consented to make the run in the event McGovern fails to make a declaration; or if a declaration fails to come out unequivocally for the lion slayer. With this known absolutely to be the stand of the Roosevelt party, political sages are unanimous in maintaining that Governor McGovern is in the worst political "pickle" into which he has been plunged since his entrance into public life. Some republicans here go so far as to predict that it is the beginning of the end for the executive. With no support from the La Follette contingent if he becomes a bull mooser, and the latter faction after his scalp if he fails to promise support for Teddy, the problem confronting McGovern is intricate.

Asked to Declare
Following the return Friday night of Henry Cochems from the Chicago convention a conference was kept quiet but it became known today that immediately telegraph wires were kept hot with telegrams for McGovern, the purport of which was "Where do you stand for president?" The Governor was not located and the search for him was continued this morning.

Interest Intense Here

Much interest was aroused in political circles in La Crosse today by the announcement that a state convention of the Roosevelt party will be called in the near future, and there was considerable speculation as to whether a state ticket would be put into the field. According to the call for the convention which was sent out by Norman Baker of Milwaukee, the progressive party, the meeting will be held in Milwaukee within a month for the purpose of endorsing the candidates named at the national progressive convention in Chicago and he further requests that all persons in Wisconsin interested in the Roosevelt movement communicate with his office in Milwaukee.

That the Roosevelt movement will receive little if any support in La Crosse county is the opinion of progressive republicans in this city today and it is certain that the new party will not get any encouragement from the democrats or the old line republicans.

"The only men who will join the new movement in this state are those who were formerly identified with the progressive republicans of this state and have since left this wing of the party because of some grievance, real or fancied, against La Follette," is the way one progressive republican analyzed the situation this morning. "Although I am acquainted with nearly every progressive of note in the state, 'he added, 'I never heard of Norman Baker and I do not believe that his call for a convention will have much weight."

McGovern Not for T. R.
Speaking in regard to the possibility that Governor McGovern may throw his support to the Roosevelt party, one of the best known progressive republicans of this city said today: "There is no possible chance that McGovern will align himself with the Roosevelt forces. I talked with the governor only last week and the Roosevelt party was one of the things we discussed. He told me at that time that he had served notice on the Roosevelt men that he would not support their candidate for president."

The "Rock of Chickamauga"

WHAT patriotic American man or boy, woman or girl has not felt a thrill of emotion when reading of the gallant fighter, Thomas, at Chickamauga?

The feat performed by this Virginia-born soldier on the 20th of September, 1863, is considered one of the most glorious of the whole war.

In the crisis of the battle on that day, all depended on the left, under his command. If that yielded, the army would be utterly routed. But Thomas held fast; he kept his position against the whole of Bragg's Army, and at night deliberately withdrew to Chattanooga, picking up over 500 prisoners on the way.

The complete story of how only the stability of this gallant general averted overwhelming defeat for the northern Army, and his deeds of bravery on Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge, is told in detail and fully illustrated in the

of the

Brady War Photographs

(Illustrating Elson's Newly Written History of the Civil War)

All the momentous deeds and events of the great battles of Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge—the generals urging forward their troops, the men and boys in the trenches, the cannoneers behind the guns—are here revealed without prejudice, without bias—granting full credit to Blue and Gray alike. The description of the Battle of Chickamauga

—the greatest battle fought by the western armies of the Civil War—gives a vivid picture of a contest that in its dimensions and murderousness was only exceeded by Gettysburg and the Wilderness. Here you read of the resolute and impetuous charge, the rush of heavy columns sweeping out from the shadow and gloom of the forest into the open fields flooded with sunlight, the glitter of arms, the onward dash of artillery and mounted men, the noise of firearms—of whistling balls, of grape-shot and bursting shell—then the retreat of the foe and the shouts of the victorious hosts.

The Battles on Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge

also described in Section 10, carry the reader to the end of the battles in front of Chattanooga, where Bragg's Army had been defeated, and from which it had to retreat to the mountains of Georgia.

The story of the far-famed "battle above the clouds," and how the boys in blue went up Missionary Ridge over rocks and chasms, all lines broken, the flags far ahead, each surrounded by the bravest, and how the Federal troops surrounded the crest, captured the guns and turned them on the retreating foe will thrill you to the marrow.

The War Pictures

reproduced in Section 10 show the country over which these bloody conflicts took place and the actors in the great struggle. Many pictures are unusually rare and interesting and are further vitalized by a detailed and authentic description of the scenes and persons represented. Some of the photographs are

BOARD TO PROTECT WISCONSIN BABIES

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 10.—The state board of health will ask the legislature at its next meeting to provide $5,000 to combat infantile blindness, which is gaining a foothold in the state, according to the health authorities.

The board makes the statement that there are 2,000 babies in Wisconsin who are blind and that the affliction is spreading rapidly. It is proposed to start an active campaign against the disease. Bulletins will be issued in an effort to educate the people how to prevent the ailment and to check its spread.

According to the board the infant mortality rate is increasing in the state and during the last year 105 out of 1,000 babies died before they were a year old. The average death rate is 12 out of 1,000 persons, according to the records for the year.

GRAND JURY BRINGS CHARGE OF PERJURY

MARINETTE, Wis., Aug. 10.—The grand jury returned two indictments here Friday night against William F. ("Kid") Kasson, Neenah hotel keeper and sporting character, and Mrs. Dora McCombs, for perjury. Kasson is said to be an agent in placing a bribe to free Edward Janajon, pickpocket, from the county jail. Kasson is supposed to have held numerous telephone calls with Charles ("Jumbo") Hitchon, said to have been active in Janajon's behalf. Kasson denies this, though the state authorities affirm they have a record of the calls. Hitchon has been convicted of gambling. Both were committed to the county jail in default of bail.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 10.—Called upon the state in the Darrow bribery case to impeach the testimony of Lincoln J. Steffens, Judge Walter Bordwell, who presided at the trial of the McNamara brothers, today flatly denied the writer's testimony. Steffens had declared that Bordwell knew of the plans for the McNamara brothers to plead guilty, prior to the actual plea.

JEALOUSY AIDS POLICE

"FAINTING BERTHA" TIPPED AUTHORITIES OFF TO MAN RESPONSIBLE FOR $200,000 ROBBERIES

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—The police today expect to arrest two women and through them the other members of a band of daylight robbers who have cleaned nearly $200,000 most of it in the downtown district, in the last three months. They have arrested Adolph Dumont and recovered $50,000 worth of jewelry he is accused of having stolen, and detectives today admitted that his arrest was brought about through the jealousy of "Fainting Bertha," and another woman.

"If you watch Adolph Dumont you will find who stole the jewelry from in front of the Silversmith building," was the note which "Fainting Bertha" sent to a Pinkerton detective.

With both of the women in custody, the police expect to experience little difficulty in rounding up the remainder of the daylight robber band.

HAVANA, Aug. 10.—To relieve the inhuman congestion of the Santiago prison, 500 accused participants in the recent negro uprising were brought here today. Six hundred and fifty remain in Santiago where they are being tried one at a time. The remainder of the year will be required to finish with them. Sentences of 20 years each are being imposed upon the officers and of 5 to 10 years on the men.

English "Hunting Parson."

The Rev. Lawrence Capel Cure, rector of Abbeys Roding, whose death is announced, was known throughout West Essex as the "hunting parson." CAN'T CHOOSE MAN

OHIO REPUBLICANS DIVIDE BETWEEN TAFT AND ROOSEVELT MEN FOR GOVERNOR CANDIDATE

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 10.—Failing last night in several conferences to decide definitely on a man to be presented to the republican state central committee as a candidate for governor to succeed Judge E. D. Dillon, resigned, leaders went into conference again this morning. Out and out Taft men wanted Warren G. Harding of Marion, to head the ticket, while friends of Roosevelt on the state committee favored U. G. Denman, United States district attorney of Cleveland.

Denman holds an appointment under President Taft but the Taft leaders here have considered him too close in his political relations to Walter F. Brown, state chairman and Roosevelt leader to be a strong Taft candidate.

BULL MOOSE TICKET WILL BE LAUNCHED

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 10.—That there will be a third state ticket in the field this fall, irrespective of Governor McGovern's attitude or desire, seems certain now, if expressions of Roosevelt leaders in Wisconsin are to be relied upon. No definite statement to this effect is given out, the leaders being non-committal when the subject is broached, but behind all their talk is seen plans forming for a bull moose movement that seems likely to result in a complete ticket being placed before the electors in November.

Optimism.

Leonidas, king of Sparta, when defending Thermopylae against the Persian host under Xerxes, was told by one of his soldiers that the Persian arrows were so numerous that they obscured the light of the sun. "Never mind that," was the reply; "we shall have the advantage of fighting in the shade."

T. R. ADMITS HIS THEFT OF PLANKS

Colonel Acknowledges the Third Party Took Good Things from Platform of Democrats

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Colonel Roosevelt had no hesitancy today in admitting that many of the planks adopted by the progressive party in its platform were of democratic origin, and he also insisted that ten years from now it would be found that the new party had solved the negro problem in the only way that will really benefit the black race.

His attention was called to an article by William Jennings Bryan, in which the democratic chieftain declared that the progressives had stolen all of their good planks from the democracy.

"Of course we have stolen all of the ideas from the democrats that were good, all except those fit for the inmates of a lunatic asylum," declared Roosevelt after reading the matter.

"So far as the handling of the negro problem at Chicago was concerned, we got it started in the only right way. We came near breaking on it, though, because so many did not understand it and wanted it made a national instead of a state issue."

Roosevelt was told that Lincoln had not considered it a state issue and took exception immediately.

"That is exactly what Lincoln did," he said. "Did he not stop the progress of slavery into free states? In ten years the people will see we correctly solved this problem. The white man in the south must aid the negro by pushing ahead the deserving colored man and driving the venal negro out of place."

TO CLEANSE POLITICS

NEW RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATION IN COLORADO TO PURGE GOVERNMENT BY CHRISTIANITY

DENVER, Col., Aug. 10.—A new religious organization, non-sectarian and undenominational, with the avowed purpose in view of purging Colorado's politics of all uncleanness and raising the standard of every day living through Christ's teachings as they apply to the practical problems and teachings of his life, has been given birth in Denver.

Under the name "Liberal Congregation of Denver," the organization is planning to hold monthly meetings with the Rev. Hiram Vrooman as its preacher and spiritual adviser.

Judge Lindsey and Tully Scott, chief justice of the court of appeals, are leaders of the new cult and members of the advisory board.

MANIAC KIDNAPS WOMAN

HUTCHINSON, Kas., Aug. 10.—A posse searched the country about Hutchinson today in hopes of finding some trace of a maniac, believed to be Oscar Dudley, 35, who kidnaped Mrs. Thomas Rollins, wife of a well-to-do farmer, from her home and drove madly across the country, pursued by several hundred men. Mrs. Rollins was alone when the man drove up to the house, and leveling a shotgun at her, compelled her to climb into the wagon with him. For miles Dudley drove madly a few hundred yards ahead of a pursuing posse, guiding his team with one hand and holding Mrs. Rollins on the seat beside him with the other. Later Mrs. Rollins was found in a hysterical condition in a cornfield.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The notion is entertained by some observers of this week's events financial, that the stock market would have broken violently on the political occurrences had it not been for the news of agricultural prosperity, and that it would have advanced enthusiastically on the crop and business information had it not been for politics. The theory is plausible, and it is one of those theories which are impossible to disprove.

It would naturally involve as a corollary the assumption that the adverse influence of the political confusion is exactly equal to the beneficial influence of the harvest outlook; for the net result has been a virtually motionless market. The main trouble with the argument is that, nobody knows what will happen next in our present chapter of political history.

There is at least this much to be said—that while political tendencies are surrounded by almost complete uncertainty, harvest results are very nearly assured. They are most remarkable; they belong, indeed, all things considered, in the category of what may be called dramatic agricultural episodes.

DARKNESS CLOSES TWO TIE GAMES

Two indoor baseball games at Copeland park last evening resulted in tie scores, the teams being forced to call the combats because of darkness. The Q. Kids and the Rubber Mills teams played a 5 to 5 tie in five innings, while the Cardinals and the Nelson Clothing company nines played seven innings, at the end of which time the score stood 4 to 4. Casperson and Bott were the battery for the Q. Kids, while Bettin and Mashek formed the battery for the Rubber Mills. Harris did the pitching for the Cardinals with Rounesky behind the bat, and Knuteson and Clow were the battery for the Nelsons.

to his ultimatum telegraphed the flatly that unless United States troops are sent to repel the invasion of the Mexican rebels into Texas ter-

Colquitt has repeatedly asked that opposed to giving the Mexicans another chance of looting Texas ranches. Colonel Steever at El Paso, has wired Colquitt that troops have been sent to the scene and further trouble

COUNTY TO SPEND MUCH ON ROADS

Will Meet Town Appropriations with Equal Sums to Improve Highways

WILL EXCEED THE STATE TAX

$29,000 to Be Spent in the County on Roads Alone
During Year of 1913

The passage of a resolution by the county board yesterday providing that the county meet all town appropriations for road improvement with an equal appropriation and that the county make up the deficiency in case the town appropriations are not large enough to draw their full share of state aid for highways, assures La Crosse county at least the amount paid as state highway tax with the probability of being allowed a much larger sum.

The various town chairmen estimate appropriations for road improvements as follows: Shelby $1-000; Greenfield $800; Washington
$500; Holland $400; Onalaska $500;
Barre $1,650; Campbell $2,700;
Bangor $800; Burns $1,000; Hamilton $2,600. The appropriations have already been made in the towns of Shelby, Greenfield, Washington, Holland, Onalaska and Barre. The estimate of the total appropriation for road improvement alone is $11,950.

The passage of the highway resolution means that the county will appropriate a like sum and under the provisions of the new state highway law, the state aid will at least equal the amount paid by the county as state highway tax. Last year La Crosse received over $5,000 in state aid for roads and with a like sum this year it will mean that about $29,000 will be spent for roads in La Crosse county during 1913. This does not include the expenditure of money for bridges.

Appropriation is Out
A resolution for the improvement of a road near "Nigger Nathan's Hill" in the towns of Onalaska and Farmington was amended to read $2,000 by the road and bridge committee and was adopted. Another resolution for road improvement on a road through the town of Onalaska, calling for a $500 appropriation was introduced by Supervisor Brown and was adopted.

A resolution introduced by Supervisor Hans Jacobs, providing for a change in the bounty rates on gophers from five to ten cents per head was killed.

Auto Fees in Road Fund
The report of the claims committee was adopted and the report of the road and bridge committee petitions calling for county aid for road improvements in the towns of Greenfield, Holland and Washington with accompanying resolutions were adopted. A communication from the La Crosse Leader-Press company relative to the circulation of the Leader-Press was introduced and read. The recommendation of the road and bridge committee that $1-603.22, received as the county's share of automobile fees, be converted to the general highway repair fund, was adopted.

PAST EVENTS

For a wonder it did not rain yesterday, neither did the sun shine, except at intervals when it peeped forth for a few moments behind the clouds, thus making a very delightful day for the river excursionists who attended the boat ride given by the congregation of St. Paul's Universalist church. There was a large crowd in attendance and a jolly good time was enjoyed by all. There was music and dancing which pleased the younger set. A couple of square dances was called for the benefit of Captain Moulton. He was greatly in demand but as he could have only one partner and there being only two dances there was a little coolness among his friends. He was emphatically the "belle of the ball." On account of the low stage of water the party did not reach home till 11 o'clock, but that did not interfere with the pleasure of the occasion.
The music was good and the captain attentive and all went merry as a marriage bell and a goodly sum was added to the church exchequer.

MANY AFTER RAIDERS

SIERRA BLANCA, Texas, Aug. 10.
—In pursuit of 200 Mexican rebels who are reported to have crossed the boundary and looted several ranches on the American side, 40 American cowboys and ranchers today are riding toward the Otto Smith ranch 40 miles south of here. A special train carrying Sheriff Edwards of El Paso and 25 Texas rangers arrived here yesterday to swell the posse. At the same time a troop of Third cavalry from Fort Bliss is hunting the rebel band along the border. From the south a body of 200 Mexican federals under Major E. Pina are attempting to locate and stop the rebels.

STRATFORD, Conn., Aug. 10.—
The stage is set; war begun. The fate of the Croton watershed in West-of New York's city water supply, and the city itself depends upon the ability of the blue army of defense to hold in check the red army of invasion, the whole to constitute the Connecticut maneuver campaign.

Theoretically, the red army landed at New Bedford, Mass., a week ago and since then has been marching southwestward to make its attack on New York city. All day troops have been pouring into the state by train and boat and tonight the hills of southwestern Connecticut will be lighted by the camp fires of two armies, each of 10,000 regulars and the militia.

Queen Elizabeth's Pedigree.
One of the most interesting curiosi-her descent could be traced through every important person, and especial-straight back to Adam and Eve. It is on record that the Virgin Queen highly commended the work.—London

ESCH SEES A VICTORY

CONGRESSMAN RETURNS FROM
SAUK AND JUNEAU COUNTIES
TODAY; CALLS OUTLOOK ENCOURAGING

That he finds the congressional situation extremely encouraging in the two new counties of his constituency, is the word brought back to La Crosse by Congressman John J. Esch today on his return from a week's campaign in Sauk and Juneau counties. Mr. Esch spent the entire week campaigning in the southern part of his constituency and returned today greatly encouraged over the outlook for his nomination at the primaries. He not only visited the principle towns along the railroad but he made several trips to the interior villages and towns in an automobile.

"Supremely encouraging," is the way he expressed himself in regard to his campaign today. "I visited a large number of my new constituents last week and everywhere I went I was given assurances of support."

Mr. Esch is today engaged in drawing up a statement in answer to the "roll call" on some of his votes in congress as printed in the LaFollette magazine recently. The statement will be given out for publication probably some time next week.

WOULD DIVORCE MISER

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—James Kerr, aged 90, was made defendant in a separate maintenance suit brought by his wife, Flora Kerr, this afternoon, in superior court. Kerr is said to be worth $100,000. Mrs. Kerr charges that he "is controlled by an inordinate passion of avarice," and that she spent "as much as 25 cents he would become enraged and threaten to kill her." His eight children by a former marriage, she says, aid in making her life miserable until "but sixty years of age, she is a nervous wreck."

LEAVES NOTE ON BRIDGE

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 10.—"Good-bye, Maudie and Little Lucille. I am happy now. In a few minutes it will all be over. Take good care of Little Lucille." These pathetic sentences were contained in a note found with a hat and coat in the center of the high bridge, spanning the Mississippi river here, shortly before noon today. A heavy rock had been placed on the clothing to prevent the note being blown from the bridge by the wind.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS ON.

EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 10.—To confer with Gen. Orozco in regard to peace negotiations with the Madero government, the commanding generals of the rebel forces are en route to Juarez on special trains sent by Orozco from Juarez. It is asserted that the federal commanders also are to come for the conference which, it is said, will be held in "Peace grove," opposite the El Paso smelter, where Madero negotiated his peace treaty with the Mexican government.

URGES INDIAN CARE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Pointing out that the 296,000 Indian residents in the United States are almost devoid of medical attention, the little they get coming from the United States Indian reservation agencies, President Taft today sent a special message to congress asking an appropriation of $255,000 to establish a medical service for them.

DISCUSS FEDERAL ROADS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Whether the government should appropriate funds to aid in constructing good roads was the subject of contention in the senate today. The provision in the house postoffice appropriation bill granting a subsidy of from $15 to $25 per mile for all roads used by mail carriers, was considered.

KRUSE BUYERS MAKE TRIP TO NEW YORK

E. J. Olson, superintendent and manager of the La Crosse branch of the Fred W. Kruse company, will leave for New York tonight, where he will be joined by Fred W. Kruse, president of the company, on a three weeks' buying expedition. Mr. Olson will leave on the Northwestern and change to the Twentieth Century Flyer in Chicago. Mr. Kruse and Mr. Olson will look over the fall and winter supply of women's garments and furs which will be placed on sale in the La Crosse and Mankato stores early next month. They expect to add more than $20,000 worth of goods to their present stocks. It is the custom of the Kruse managers to make two buying trips to New York each year. The next one will be made in February.

STUMP SPEECH IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Openly bidding for the "labor vote," Representative W. B. Wilson (Dem., Pa.) chairman of the house labor committee, added another campaign speech to the congressional record, when he addressed the house on "labor and the democrats." Col. Roosevelt and President Taft were both denounced by Representative Wilson as foes of the dinner table man. "It seems strange," said Wilson, "that Roosevelt, who has been for months parading himself as the friend of the common people was the first president to issue an executive order denying to wage-workers employed by the government the right to petition congress for redress of their grievances. This 'gag' order was broadened by President Taft."

WILL INCREASE PULP IMPORT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Free importation of wood pulp and print paper manufactured from wood cut on the leases of the Powell River company in British Columbia will be greatly increased by an order issued by the treasury department today. The order accords with the new provincial regulations removing restrictions imposed by the general laws. It is expected that the result will be large increases in imports to Pacific coast states.

MRS. HOETH BURIED

A large number of friends and relatives attended the funeral of Mrs. Molly Hoeth, which was held yesterday afternoon, 236 Johnson street, at 2 o'clock, and from the German Lutheran church at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Julius Gamm officiated at the services. Mrs. Hoeth's five sons, William, George, Robert, Otto, and Louis, and her cousin, Louis Hoeth, acted as pallbearers.

CAN'T AFFORD POLITICS

CLEVELAND, Aug. 10.—"I'm dropping out of politics mainly because I cannot afford to stay in the game, financially speaking." Governor Robert S. Vessey, progressive leader of South Dakota and bull moose militant, who arrived in Cleveland today for a two day stay, thus announced his intention of retiring at the end of his present term. Fresh from the third party convention at Chicago, Governor Vessey foresees a smooth, well steam rolled path for the progressive organization.

BIG SALE WILL MARK BIRTHDAY

Park Store Will Celebrate Thirty-two Years of Prosperity Next Week

Justly proud of its development from a small store on what was then practically open prairie, to the institution that now occupies more than half a block in the heart of the business district of the city, the Park Store will celebrate its thirty-second anniversary all next week with one of the largest sales in its career.

The history of the Doerflinger Park Store, familiar to nearly every citizen of La Crosse in a general way, is a story of rapid development from the smallest of beginnings to one of the most substantial retail business concerns in the northwest.

Thirty-two years ago August 1, William Doerflinger started the career of the institution in a 18x26 shack on South Fourth street, near the present location of the Moore laundry. The old building, which is still standing, was outgrown within a year. It was situated on what was then the outskirts of the town and many of the men engaged in business in the city told Mr. Doerflinger that he would never be able to attract trade so far from the business district. The fact that he was forced to move his ever-increasing stock into a brick building erected on a neighboring lot by Fred Rehffuss within a year proved his business ability. Two years later another building was erected alongside the brick structure making the housing capacity forty by sixty feet.

The next move of the store was made two years later to the Funk building or the present Continental building. These quarters, then about the largest in the city, were quickly outgrown and to accommodate the ever increasing volume of trade Mr. Doerflinger purchased J. B. Canterbury to erect a three story brick building 60 by 100 feet on what is part of the present site of the Park Store. Shortly after this, what was known as the Trade Palace was absorbed by the big store and it had nearly reached its present size when in 1904 a disastrous fire wiped out the entire plant.

The present five story block was erected the next year. There are at present more than 200 persons in the employ of the Park Store, operating twenty-seven departments. Many of these employees have been with the company more than twenty-five years and have participated in its success and prosperity.

Every department will be affected by the big sale next week. Officers were elected as follows at the semi-annual meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night: J. C. Wolford, president; John Rae, vice president; George W. Naegle, financial secretary; A. B. Chandler, recording secretary; John J. Serres, treasurer; Alex. Major, sergeant at arms; Edward Schilling, guide; John Rae, organizer. The meeting was held at the Eagle hall. A meeting of the Labor day committee will be held Friday night.

FIRE RAZES TWO PIERS

RAILWAY DOCKS IN NEW YORK
DESTROYED BY BLAZE
WHICH THREATENS
WATER FRONT

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Fire on the New York Central piers at West 33rd street and the North river spread so rapidly this afternoon that within three minutes two great piers, filled with great quantities of merchandise, were ablaze and several firemen were forced to jump into the river to prevent burning to death. Three alarms and two special calls for extra fire apparatus were sent in and the fire raged on the various lines having headquarters near there were brought into action to prevent the destruction of the entire river front at this place. The fire was held to the New York Central piers, which were completely destroyed.

MINNEAPOLIS PARTY MOTOR TO LA CROSSE

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Furber and two children of Minneapolis arrived in La Crosse last night, after having made the trip from the Twin Cities to this city in their Ford automobile in sixteen and one-half hours. Mr. and Mrs. Furber are visiting at the home of James Hillton, 1521 Jackson street.

Starting from Minneapolis at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, the party left St. Paul at 5 o'clock and reached La Crosse at 8:30 o'clock last evening after having encountered poor roads. The roads from St. Paul to Rochester were especially muddy and hard to travel.

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL ELECTS

Officers were elected as follows at the semi-annual meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night: J. C. Wolford, president; John Rae, vice president; George W. Naegle, financial secretary; A. B. Chandler, recording secretary; John J. Serres, treasurer; Alex. Major, sergeant at arms; Edward Schilling, guide; John Rae, organizer. The meeting was held at the Eagle hall. A meeting of the Labor day committee will be held Friday night.

BARLEY BEARD PUTS MAN NEAR DEATH

Richard Humfeldt, a farmer from South Ridge, Minn., was today discharged as cured from the St. Francis hospital, after he was brought to La Crosse three days ago, too weak to speak and considered to be dying. The occasion of his troubles was a small barley beard in the throat. The beard lodged in his throat while stacking barley, and although it could not be removed, no attention was paid to it until an abscess formed. This rapidly grew so bad that Humfeldt was brought to La Crosse as a last resort. An operation was performed immediately after his arrival.

PROBE NAVY ACCIDENTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—A special navy board was announced by the navy department today to investigate accidents to battleships Connecticut and Nebraska yesterday and to consider as a whole the series of misfortunes which have been suffered by vessels of the North Atlantic fleet.

It was emphatically denied that there was any friction among officers of the fleet, or that lack of discipline caused the accidents. "Just hard luck," was the navy's comment.

Both the Connecticut and Nebraska will probably be out of commission for several weeks.

CHARGE JURY TAMPERING.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—For the second time today charges of jury fixing caused a sensation in the trial of Mrs. Florence Bernstein, accused of the murder of her husband, Geo. Bernstein, and caused a temporary suspension of the case. Albert Bickhaut, a venireman, declared in court that he had been approached, and he described the man. Immediately the defense attorneys declared the man described was a friend of the dead husband, who was trying to fix the jury to convict Mrs. Bernstein. Pending investigation a recess was taken until Monday.

REFUSES INFORMATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Asserting that it was "none of public's business," Brigadier General Bixby, chief of army engineers, refused today to say whether the army engineers in charge of the Gallipolis, O., river dam which was recently swept out, causing a million dollar loss, will be relieved, or are to continue with the repairs of the dam. The accident was caused, it was said, by slipping of the rock foundation.

SOLDIERS SWIPE OFFICER'S AUTO

Four Enlisted Men from Camp McCoy Arrested
Here in Major's Machine

Four "boys in blue" from Camp Bruce E. McCoy today returned to Sparta under guard, the result of annexation of their major's automobile.

George Normington and James A. Dyke, evidently overcome by anticipations of joy-riding, procured leave of absence last night and hurrying to their major's garage procured the car. The sight of his comrades riding on the soft cushions of a Pierce-Arrow proved too big a temptation to R. C. Brown, who joined them upon invitation and the trip to La Crosse was started.

Arriving here, Ura Manning, another of Uncle Sam's warriors, was induced to join the party. All went smoothly until members of the La Crosse police force who had been notified of the disappearance of the car, executed a flank movement, capturing the soldiers who were ordered to right-about-face and march on the double quick to central police station.

Another detachment took charge of the captured men this morning and they were taken back to Sparta to answer to the military authorities. The car is the property of Major Brownly, now in charge of part of the troops at Sparta.

POSTPONE BOXING MATCH AT SPARTA

The ten round exhibition boxing match between Art Nelson of Sparta and Clark of the army is to be held at Camp McCoy Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, according to advances received from Sparta today. The match was scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, but it was postponed.

Many fans in La Crosse have displayed much interest in the exhibition and a large number are planning to go to Sparta Monday to witness the match. Nelson is well known in this vicinity, as he has done some wonderful work in the exhibitions which he has taken part in this spring, and he has clearly demonstrated that he is a clever and fast boxer. Clark has a reputation of being a great boxer, as he has made an excellent showing in the bouts in which he has participated and has been one of the principals in a large number of exhibitions. Nelson and Clark appear to be evenly matched, so one of the greatest ten round exhibitions seen for some time is expected when these two men meet Monday evening.

The fans who wish to witness the exhibition will leave La Crosse at noon Monday and return after the bout.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 10.—The primary law passed at the special session of the Minnesota legislature with provisions for second choice and classification, is valid. The case brought by John A. Chief Justice Start, writing the opinion, sustains the judgment of the Hennepin county court that John A. Nordin will have to designate the class in which he will run before the county auditor can put his name on the legislative ballot this fall.

Eagle Not Always Brave.
Eagles are generally believed to be very courageous. That they are not always as brave as is supposed is proved by the following anecdote: A naturalist tells of a combat between ten missel-thrushes and a white-tailed eagle, in which the latter was thoroughly vanquished, and was discovered squatting down in a shed, where he had been driven in hope of refuge from the angry birds.

LA CRESCENT ROAD WILL BE REPAIRED

City Council Decides to Ignore Protest Against Spending of $5,000 to Fix Highway INJUNCTION TALK A BLUFF?

Aldermen Declare City Has Right to Improve Approaches to Toll Bridge

Declaring that the city has collected $7,000 in tolls from the patrons of the Mississippi river bridge since last spring and that La Crosse owed it to these patrons to repair the La Crescent highway, Alderman P. W. Mahoney urged the city council at its regular monthly meeting last night to pay no attention to the protest against the spending of the $5,000 for the improvement of the west approach to the bridge. He declared that the alleged threat that an injunction would be served against the city to stop this work is only a bluff and would not stand in the courts. The debate on the proposed repairs to the La Crescent road came up when the committee reported out the protest that was filed with the council at the last meeting. The committee made no further recommendation on the protest other than it be placed on file.

Downs and Roth Switch

Alderman John F. Downs started the argument by asserting that in his opinion the citizens who had signed the protest were in earnest and would undoubtedly start proceedings to prevent the spending of the money for the improvement of the road. Alderman Downs requested that he be allowed to change his vote which he had registered at the last meeting in favor of the appropriation of $5,000 for the improvement of the highway. Alderman H. J. Roth made a similar request, both of which were granted by the council. The rest of the aldermen, excepting Burt Smith, who opposed the appropriation at the last meeting, expressed their willingness to "stand pat" on their vote and the work will be begun in the near future.

Alderman William Torrance said that he had consulted attorneys in the matter and was told that the city had a right to repair the road and an injunction would not hold in the courts.

"The city not only has a charter from the states of Wisconsin and Minnesota covering the upkeep of the bridge and its approaches," he said, "but the citizens have expressed themselves in favor of this policy in a referendum vote."

Derr Asks Raise

A petition from City Sealer E. H. Derr, requesting that his salary be raised to $100 a month and an appropriation for the expense of running his automobile in connection with his duties as sealer, was referred to the committee on finance and ordinance. Following the recommendation of the committee, the bill for $250 of Max Collbohn, the Madison engineer, who made certain investigations in regard to the Gas and Electric company, was disallowed.

A resolution ordering the city controller to transfer $1,000 from one sinking fund to the street improvement fund to be used in the repair of the causeway to the north side was tabled. The request to build a sewer in the 1300 block on George street was referred to the streets and alleys committee. The report of the city sealer that the city and stock and hay scales were in need of repairs was referred to the committee on grounds and buildings. An invitation that La Crosse send a delegate to the Indianapolis Health conference in Washington next month was placed on file.

The board of public works was instructed to order the La Crosse Scrap Iron company to remove certain piles of scrap iron which are said to be obstructing the street at La Crosse and Fifth streets. Sewers were ordered on Redfield street from Twelfth street to the Redfield school house and on North Third street to the La Crosse river bridge.

Alderman Mahoney read a report on the municipalities convention held in Wausau, July 21 to 24 which was attended by several city officials from La Crosse. Mr. Mahoney said it rained in Wausau.

A report from the board of public works that the La Crosse river bridge is in need of repairs was referred to the committee on bridges.

Holway Resigns
The resignation of Orlando Holway as a member of the board of education was read and accepted.

Alderman Burt Smith introduced a resolution that the board of public works be instructed to order the dealer who had sold them the oil which has been put on Jackson street, make good his guarantee. Mr. Smith declared that the oil did not come up to the specifications and that the city could force the dealer to make good the guarantee. The resolution was carried.

The council adjourned at 9:45 p. m.

Why Not Do It in a Sanitary Way?

POISONED Flies drop into the food, the baby's milk, everywhere, or are ground into the carpets, rugs and floors. A poisoned fly is more dangerous than a live one. THE HEART IS THE DYNAMO OF LIFE

It is the perpetual motion of existence. One of the commonest symptoms of heart disease is shortness of breath and weakness upon the slightest exertion, with swelling of the feet and sometimes abdomen. Many cases of heart disease exist in persons who are apparently robust and who are not supposed to have anything the matter with them. Heart disease occurs as a complication of Bright's disease, the heart becoming very much enlarged and gradually weaker, as life advances. Rheumatism is also one of the commonest causes of heart disease.

If you are conscious that your heart is any more a part of you than your foot, it is a matter for immediate consultation with Dr. Turbin, the expert specialist and surgeon. Prompt attention oftentimes saves serious after trouble and possible death. The chances for recovery depend largely upon to what extent the disease has progressed. With the aid of suitable heart tonics which will act on the muscles of the heart and enable it to perform its functions, patients are enabled to live to an old age with comparative ease and freedom from pain.

Dr. Turbin has specialized on the heart for twenty years. He has seen every phase of heart weakness; has treated everything in the shape of a weak heart. He has found that often the so-called heart troubles are not from the heart at all. He can show you wherein your hope may lie. Have you fluttering of the heart? Have you skipping of the heart? Have you palpitation of the heart? Have you pain in the region of the heart? Have you pain in side of shoulder-blade?

Have you shortness of breath? Have you weak, sinking, cold or dizzy spells?

Have you rheumatism? Have you throbbing of the heart in excitement or exertion?

If any of these questions apply to your case, it would be well for you to take immediate steps. Consult with Dr. Turbin at his office, 121 N. Dr. Turbin is an expert on health and medicines.

DR. TURBIN of Berlin, Germany, the expert specialist, who has visited La Crosse for the past twenty years, will be again in La Crosse at the Jefferson Hotel, Thursday, August 22.

Hours, 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., and every fourth Thursday thereafter. And in Prairie du Chien, at the Dounsman House, Wednesday, Aug. 21.

A Troubled Sea and a Troubled Soul. Mark iv:35-v:20.

Golden Text—God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will we not fear though the earth do change and though the mountains be moved in the heart of the seas. Ps. xlv:1-2.

(1.) Verse 35—On which side of the sea did Jesus propose to go?

(2.) Verse 36—Does taking Jesus on board insure a calm and safe passage to our journey's end?

(3.) Verse 37—How do you explain that such a great storm could take place while Jesus was on the ship?

(4.) Does God ever change or modify natural laws for the safety or convenience of anybody? Give your reasons.

(5.) Why is it that God permits storm, stress and strain to enter into most of our lives?

(6.) Verse 38—What, if any, danger is there to a ship, and why, if Jesus is on board?

(7.) What right would you say had Jesus to be asleep when the ship and passengers look to be in such imminent danger?

(8.) Under the circumstances, with Jesus on board, were they wise or unwise, and why, for being afraid?

(9.) No matter what the apparent calamity or danger be in the life of a child of God, is there ever any need to be afraid? Why?

(10.) Were they right or wrong, and why, to administer this rebuke to Jesus?

(11.) Would you say, or not, and why, that all complaining against God's providences is wrong?

(12.) Verses 39-41—Would it have been better, or not, and why, if the prayer which Jesus answered had never been offered?

(13.) What did Jesus mean by his kind rebuke of their fear?

(14.) Verses 1-7—What reason is there to believe that violent insanity sometimes gives what may be called supernatural strength?

(15.) How did this poor man probably know Jesus?

(16.) Presuming that this man was actually possessed with devils, would it have been possible for him to have known Jesus other than by ordinary means?

(17.) Verses 8-12—What evidence, if any, is there that some today are possessed with devils, as this man was?

(18.)—

(19.) Verses 13-20—What right had Jesus to be the means of destroying 2,000 swine?

Lesson for Sunday, August 18, 1912, The Ruler's Daughter. Mark v:21-43.

Wit of Sages, Folly of Clown, Stolen Gems from Humor's Crown.

No Answer Forthcoming.

Senator Borah was talking at a dinner in Boise about an embarrassing question that had been asked at Chicago.

"The question," he said, smiling, "went unanswered. It was like little Willie's query."

"A young gentleman was spending the week end at little Willie's cottage at Atlantic City, and on Sunday evening after dinner, there being a scarcity of chairs on the crowded piazza, the young gentleman took Willie on his lap."

"Then, during a pause in the conversation, little Willie looked up at the young gentleman and piped:

"Am I as heavy as sister Mabel?"

Her Sympathy Shocked Him.

It happened the other evening, and now a certain clubman is trying to figure out how he will square things with his wife the next time he is "detained" down town. He was not going home for dinner and when his wife answered the telephone he said:

"Don't wait for me at dinner this evening, dear, I shall be detained on business."

"Very well," she replied. "I'm sorry you can't come home, but business is business, I suppose. Where are you now?"

"Where am I? In my office, of course. I have had a very hard day."

"It's too bad you have to work so hard, George. But tell me something."

"Yes, dear; what is it?"

"How can you keep your mind on business with the orchestra playing 'Every Little Movement'?"—Kansas City Star.

The Young Man Was Too Hasty.

A clerk at the Hollenden tells the Cleveland Plain Dealer that the going on the hotel counter whereby a bellboy is summoned is going out of date. Clerks find it more convenient to tap with a pencil or to give a low whistle. The other day a diffident young man entered the lobby and said:

"I wish to send my card to Mrs. Kerjink's room."

The clerk whistled.

The visitor blushed and squared his shoulders.

"The lady is my sister," he said.

The clerk whistled again. The young man got mad.

"Darn you," he squealed. "Another pipe like that and I'll smash you in the eye!"

"Boy, take this card up," said the clerk. "Pardon me, sir, is there anything else?"

CHURCH NEWS

Great Gathering Of Catholics.

The greatest parade of Catholic laymen America has yet seen will take place in Louisville on Sunday, August 18, as an opening feature of the eleventh annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies. Archbishop Bonzano, the Pope's delegate to the church in America, will sing pontifical High Mass on the morning of the date named, the sermon being preached by Bishop McFall of Trenton, one of the founders of the Federation. Governor McCreary of Kentucky; Archbishop Messmer of Milwaukee; National President Feeney of Brooklyn, a negro and an Indian priest will have parts on the program. Thousands will attend from every diocese.

Looking Into Peru Conditions.

Immediately there came to the attention of missionary societies of the United States and England that atrocities are charged upon operatives in the rubber producing industries of Peru investigation was begun of the Catholic and Protestant status, and a study made of what religious and relief work was actually being carried on there. It has already been found by the American societies that almost nothing is done for the operatives that is either directly spiritual, or for their moral and social welfare. Societies have religious work in Peru but it is not among these rubber producing people.

A meeting has already been held in London and the Regions Beyond Union, the South American Missionary society, the Evangelical Union of South America and the British and Foreign Bible society have offered help. American societies have been interviewed. The Methodist is the only large American society having missionary work there. Its work is wholly in the three cities of Callao, Lima, and Tarma, all far removed from the Amazon rubber district of northeastern Peru. The American Bible society has an agency in Peru, but as 90 per cent of the rubber operatives in the Amazon country, can not read, the sales are small. The Methodist society has replied to the English Protestants, however, that it is willing to co-operate as far as able. The English societies reply that they are going ahead, chiefly through the South American Missionary society, which is Anglican.

Get-Rich-Quick Periodical.

Presbyterian and other ministers are just now receiving a dog-day business proposition in the shape of a ground-floor offer of stock in a new religious periodical, to be published weekly in Chicago and New York, but to have headquarters in Chicago, and which is assured as a financial venture to the extent of seven per cent profits annually. A few ministers are writing to their present editors of religious weeklies asking what is known and what is thought of the scheme. One editor has replied that the thing is put forth by a firm or Chicago stock brokers, the people in the cities, not to mention the editor advised his correspondent to look carefully into the proposition before investing.

The failure of the "New York Observer," one of the oldest of American religious weeklies, owing large sums of money and with a record of having sunk large sums, has called attention once more to the condition of religious periodicals, their small circulations, general indifferent appearance, and the

Domestic Hints

(From The Scotch-American)

Whistling is said to be very beneficial for people with weak lungs.

Dr. D. W. Smith said, "Alcohol is not a restorative nor a recuperative."

Baldness is far less common among dark-headed people than among their darker-haired neighbors.

A little vinegar put in the water in which eggs are poached will keep them white and prevent them from spreading.

Varnished woods should be rubbed with a chamol leather wrung out of cold water, then polished with a soft duster.

Dishes which have become brown and burnt from baking in the oven may be easily cleaned after they have stood a while in borax water.

Gas stoves should be constantly washed with hot water and soda. After drying rub with a very little paraffin, and polish with blacklead.

Puff-pastry should be mixed several hours before it is to be rolled out, and put in a cold place. It improves the pastry, and saves a good deal of labor.

When choosing fish see that the flesh is firm and thick and the gills red. Touch the fish, and if the impression of your finger remains you will know that the fish is stale.

A delicate person will be in danger of catching cold or rheumatism if the sheets have not been properly dried, for nothing is more uncomfortable than cold damp sheets.

A use for old white silk gloves is to cut off the tops of the fingers, about two inches, and draw over tender toes to prevent them from chafing against the others. They give great relief.

fact that many of them are run on subsidies. It is admitted that the outlook for religious journalism in America is unfavorable. The projectors of the new periodical, not yet named, talk glibly of 250,000 circulation and immense profits from the advertising income. The Presbyterian church, one of the largest American religious bodies, is without a newspaper organ in the largest of American cities. So far as can be learned, no minister has yet invested in the new Presbyterian enterprise.

Arsenic Most Frequently Used.

Arsenic has, perhaps, been more frequently used than any other poison for criminal purposes. It has been proved identical with the "wonderful elixir" of the seventeenth century, when secret poisoning became so frequent in Italy that the clergy, despite the rules of the confessional, acquainted Pope Alexander VII. in 1643 with the extent of the practice.

PLAY FINAL GAME FOR CITY TITLE

Summits and Clothiers to Meet in League Park Tomorrow for Decision of Claims

Ever since last Sunday when the Summits and the Clothing company baseball teams split even in a double header the one topic of conversation among local fans has been the deciding combat with these nine which will play tomorrow at League Park when the city championship will be decided. In case the Summits win they will have an excellent claim on the city championship for they will have defeated the present holders of the title.

Manager Kolb of the Summits announces that he will send his star pitcher, Bell, to the slab in order to win the crucial game of the series tomorrow. Bell is the twirler who held the Clothiers helpless in the second game last Sunday and allowed them but one run while his team made fourteen. If this pitcher twirls in the form he did last Sunday, the Clothiers will have a hard time solving his delivery for he was effective at all times in his last appearance. He will probably be opposed by Bartels, the Clothiers' mainstay in the box, and a battle between these two stars will be a close and interesting one.

The Summits and the Clothiers will undoubtedly participate in a fast and close game tomorrow as the championship is at stake and both teams have many rooters who are confident that they will win. If the Summits put up the the article of ball tomorrow that they played in the last game of last Sunday's double header there is no doubt but that they will win as they entirely outclassed their opponents last week.

PIRATES HAVE EMBRYO PARSON

PITTSBURG, Aug. 10.—In the major ranks today the game is dignified with the presence of a near minister. If this youngster is ordained he will be known as Maxwell G. Carnarius, but on the battlefield, as a member of the Pirate crew, he is designated only as Max Carey.

Next year Carey, or Carnarius, as he see fit to call him, will become a full fledged Lutheran minister, but whether he will take up that profession upon his graduation remains to be seen. Carey is studying for the pulpit at the St. Louis Theological seminary during the winter and playing ball during the summer. If his prowess as a ballplayer is a criterion of his ability as a minister he should be a power in the religious world.

SETS PACING MARK

PITTSBURG, Aug. 10.—Racing fans here today are wild with enthusiasm over the world season's record for a mile pace made yesterday by Vernon McKinney, a bay stallion from Winnipeg on Bruno's Island race track. The time was 2:11½.

The White Sox overcame a lead of three runs, and trounced the Athletics 7 to 6. Walsh was there with some nifty pitching, fanning nine of the Mack men.
